Samuel II 5:4 David was thirty years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years.

In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah thirty-three years.

The king and his men set out for Jerusalem against the Jebusites who inhabited the region. David was told, "You will never get in here! Even the blind and the lame will turn you back." (They meant: David will never enter here.)

But David captured the stronghold of Zion; it is now the City of David.

On that occasion David said, "Those who attack the Jebusites shall reach the water channel and [strike down] the lame and the blind, who are hateful to David." That is why they say: "No one who is blind or lame may enter the House."

David occupied the stronghold and renamed it the City of David; David also fortified the surrounding area, from the Millo inward.

Building a Palace

וישמעו פלשתים כי-משח את-דוד למלך על-ישראל ויעלו כל-פלשתים לבקש את-דוד וישמע דוד וירד אל-המצודה:

Samuel II 5: 17 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, the Philistines marched up in search of David; but David heard of it, and he went down to the fastness.

The Shiloach Inscription

... the tunnel ... and this is the story of the tunnel while ...the axes were against each other and while three cubits were left to (cut?) ... the voice of a man ...called to his counterpart, (for) there was ZADA in the rock, on the right ... and on the day of the tunnel (being finished) the stonecutters struck each man towards his counterpart, ax against ax and flowed water from the source to the pool for 1,200 cubits. and (100?)cubits was the height over the head of the stonecutters ...
